

Technical Compliance Sheet

RFQ N° UNFPA/FJI/RFQ/25/010 - Reproductive Maternal New-Born Child & Adolescent Health (RMNCAH) Policy, Strategy and Costed Implementation Plan for Tonga

Requirement	Compliance (Yes/No)	Comments/Details
The Contractor shall be a nonprofit institution operating in the field of SRHR/ maternal and newborn health/ communicable disease/cancer control/STI, with preference to those who are located within the PICs or partnered with local PIC agencies.
Accreditation or ongoing accreditation process by a certified accreditation body (desirable).
Proven experience in the field of SRHR projects, especially in the Pacific islands region.
Experience working in or with PIC governments.
Experience managing multiple simultaneous projects and staff.
Experience in policy development, especially SRHR.
Previous work with UNFPA, other international organizations and/or major institutions in the field of public health.
Based in the Pacific islands (desirable).
Specific examples of development of SRHR policies or plans in PICs (desirable).
Having contact/focal persons within PICs (desirable).
A project manager with adequate qualification and experience will be dedicated to the project (resume to be attached).
Profiles of personnel proposed for services included in the technical proposal (no individual names required).
Understanding of public health, medicine, international development studies, and public policy.
Knowledge of health problem analysis.

Experience in health policy development and health strategic planning.
Knowledge of RMNCAH program in the Pacific context.
Knowledge and experience of research on socio-economic issues in the Pacific region.
Knowledge of gender equity and social inclusion.
Knowledge of the health care environment of small island developing states (desirable).
Experience in health system analysis (desirable).
Knowledge of Pacific islands culture and international relationships (desirable).
Experience conducting gender analysis (desirable).
The proposal includes travel costs for conducting validation workshops.
Technical proposal provided in response to requirements outlined in the service requirements/TORs.
Signed Declaration Form provided in accordance with the document.

Instructions: Bidders are requested to fill in the "Compliance (Yes/No)" column and provide details/comments and documents where necessary.